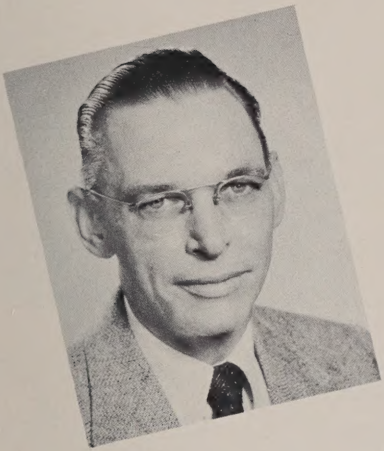
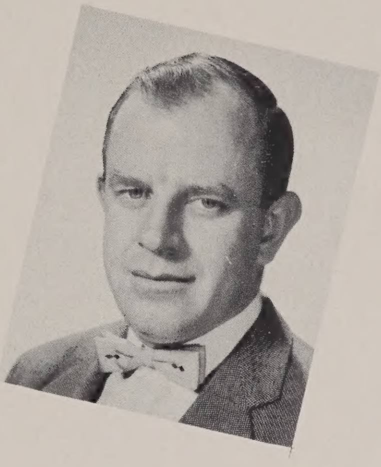
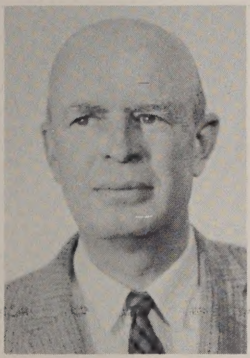
Our Charlton High Album - 1956

F.R.Y.







DEDICATION

To Chairman Roland Fawthrop, Sr., to Leland H. Baker, Edward R. Knowlton, Raymond H. Moulton, Clifford H. Pontbriand, Mrs. Alberta Putnam and Mrs. Frances L. Reid — the Charlton School Building Planning Committee — this photographic essay of our school is gratefully dedicated in appreciation for the endless hours you consumed in research, for your untiring endeavor in seeking to apply the information obtained, and for reaching the apex of your efforts in the rewarding and satisfactory manner which you have, for, the initial stages of the new elementary school building are themselves inviting prosperity, better education, and a more intense social and civic life in our community.

COMMENCEMENT

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of a successful four years, but also a "beginning of graduation life." Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.
